General

Electric car charging point near TTW Central Office

If you drive an electric car then a charging point is vitally important. Near the TTW Office two public charging points are available at the Van Vollenhovenlaan 451, in front of the entrance of ERC De Keizershof (the building next to the TTW Office). For more information, please see: <http://www.oplaadpalen.nl/laadpaal/48521>

By public transport

From Utrecht Central Station take the light rail ('sneltram') to Nieuwegein-Zuid or IJsselstein (both are fine). The tram leaves from the Jaarbeursplein. About 5 minutes after departure get off at the stop '5 Mei Plein' (third stop from Central Station, and the stop after '24 Oktoberplein Zuid'). The TTW Office is to the left of the tram line (opposite Kanaleneiland shopping centre).

Please note: the entrance is at the other side of the building, on the Van Vollenhovenlaan.

If you travel by public transport, we advise you to travel by tram. It is also possible to travel from Utrecht Central Station by bus 24, 29, 102, 103, 107, 195 or 295 to TTW. Get off at the first stop 'Koningin Julianaweg'.
